

The background of the entire poster is a vibrant collage of various cassette tapes. The tapes are in different colors including red, yellow, green, and blue, and are scattered across the frame. Some tapes are labeled 'SIDE B', 'SIDE A', '90', and '2x45min'. The overall aesthetic is retro and musical.

SENIOR

BIOS

Cooper Watson (Dick) started in Devon theater his first year at the school, and continued for the entirety of his stay there. He played Danny Zuko in Grease, The Beast in Beauty and the Beast, and then Dick in High Fidelity. He also participated in the shows of Notre Dame and played Amos Hart in Chicago and Warner in Legally Blonde. Other than theater he was on the wrestling team, he sang in choral tide, and played the saxophone in the Devon jazz band. He would like to that his mom and Ms. Byrne and Mr. Grayberg, for all their support.

Anna McCabe (Anna)'s experience at Devon theater has been short but memorable. She joined this past fall for the production of The Election. She was welcomed with open arms by the entire cast and has been gifted with life-long memories. She will miss everyone so very much when she leaves for college in the fall. She want to thank Mrs. Grahn and Mr. Grayberg for their continuous support and care for everyone in the cast. Roll tide!!

Brenna Dougherty (Liz) Being a part of Devon Theatre was an amazing experience I'll never forget. I have been in so many shows and have never met a group of people I loved being around more. My all time favorite role was Rafiki in the Lion King, and Mrs. Potts in Beauty and the Beast. From New Jersey to Pennsylvania, it's been great doing theater and finding a community I love. Can't wait to see what comes next for my favorite community! Love you guys and Mrs. Grahn!

Lucy Hughes (Sarah Kendrew) joined in on this show, her fourth at Devon, after an email from Mrs. Grahn that she received in Spanish class declaring "SPRING MUSICAL NEEDS YOU!" in its subject. Though not exactly a theater kid, as she continues to swear that Cats is somehow a masterpiece, she is always ready to give her time and seemingly abundant energy to every show that she is in. She is incredibly grateful for all of the directors, teachers, crew, and cast who have made her experiences unforgettable. She's happy to have the opportunity to do one last show with Devon.

Reagan Megow (Barry) is in his third and final year of Devon Theater. His experience here has granted him some of the most rewarding moments in his high school career. In the past few years he has had the opportunity to portray a talking clock, an anxious wreck, a wannabe president and now a rude rockstar. He would like to thank his parents, Mrs. Grahn and the High Fidelity cast for supporting him all-throughout his Devon Theater experience.

Gavin Smith (Roadie) is in his first and final year of Devon Theater, but is absolutely thrilled to be here. Outside of theater Gavin is a member of the swim team, A.C.T., and enjoys snowboarding and photography. He would like to thank everyone in the show for a memorable year and a great experience.
