BRIAN OLINGER '95

Pierce Rohlfing '25, Devon Dialogue Editor-In-Chief, sat down with Brian Olinger '95 to discuss Devon and the impact the school has had on his life.

This year, Brian is receiving the Alumni Achievement Award. He talked about what this has meant to him:

Receiving this award has meant so much for Mr. Olinger, because Devon has truly changed his life. Devon has given him so much and is one of the reasons he's had so much success.

Devon has given him opportunities to thrive and grow into becoming a better version of himself and more importantly, a more confident person. He is grateful for his past teachers, classmates, coaches, and faculty he has met and learned from at Devon.

Brian discussed his life post Devon:

Brian graduated from Devon Prep in 1995 and was awarded a full scholarship to Temple. He earned his bachelor's degree and started his career at Vanguard. He currently serves as a team leader and holds a position in a mentor program. He served on the Board of Trustees at Devon Prep from 2015-2019.

Why is it important for alumni to stay connected to Devon?

Devon has impacted his life so much and he wants to give back everything he can to Devon. He told me that it's important to build and maintain relationships within the school because those relationships can last a lifetime. He also said that Alumni can teach the younger generation and provide internships, which can help jumpstart a younger student's career.
